Inspired Waiting

I am still on this journey on understanding the great gift of prayer that God has given His children. I started a serious walk with Him in December on this topic. I went in safe places with it, other People's Needs...To seriously needing God to hear me and show Himself to me in prayer.

What can I say now? He has placed me on the watchtower daily. Waiting daily to see His Hand move in my life. Waiting means standing under, in active strength, enduring till the answer comes. Oswald Chambers says in His book "If You will Ask". The first thing to remember is to watch at the right place where God has put us. Watch that is for Gods answer to our prayers, and not only watch, but wait. When my eyes are open I see Him working daily.

- Today a Dr. cancelled her $700.00 bill for us.
- Today I found an address I was looking for, for three weeks.
- Today Dr. Levinson is thinking outside his box and considering other ways to help Joe.
- Today Love was said in our home.
- Today two friends call to see how I am doing, listening to my fears.
- Today a great healthy meal was given to us.

- Today the Lord whispers in my ear, "I am El Shaddai I am the Almighty God and I am with you".

This journey is keeping me right in the lap of my Father. He knows my big prayer. Joe's remission for 15 years. He has heard me. I do not have to pretend that I am Spiritual and want a higher good. He knows my heart. I can be honest with Him and know that He will care for that heart no matter what happens. But now I wait expecting Him to keep His word with me.

Jesus says, "Whatsoever ye shall ask in my name that will I do" (John 14:13). Isn't that wonderful? It is so wonderful that I do not suppose more than half of us really believe it. "Everyone that asketh receiveth" (Matthew 7: 8) Isn't that wonderful? It is so wonderful that many of us have never even asked God. "If two of you shall agree on earth a s touching anything that they ask it shall be done for them by my Father which is in Heaven (Matthew 18: 19) Isn't that wonderful? The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16) Isn't that wonderful?

It's His Word.

Let Him keep it.

I'll wait and watch.
