ABIDE

John 15:7, "If you abide in Me,
and My words abide in you,
ask whatever you wish,
and it will be done for you".

Words I heard last year loud and clear.

True words.

My wish for Joe's healing granted!

So why now do I doubt the small stuff?

My heart grieves because of my "little faith" after a big answer.

*Why do I fear getting headaches?

*Why do I fear failing in a new job?

*Why do I struggle with relationships that hurt?

*Why do I think calamity is around every corner?

If I were God... I would hang me out to dry... on a very windy day.

But not Him,

His amazing grace,

His amazing Voice. Again, I hear,

"Let Me be your dwelling place, Terri".

He declares that He has been our dwelling place for all generations, but am I living in it??

The Israelites had Him but wandered in the wilderness, they found no city, they were hungry and their soul fainted. The truth is our souls are made for God. He is our home and we will never find rest outside of Him.

The Lord is my Rock,

My Fortress,

My deliverer...

What safer abiding place is there?

Oh, my soul,
believe and rest...
