Connecting People to God's Life-Changing Power

We've Got Connections!

For God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love which you have shown toward His name, in having ministered and in still ministering to the saints.

This is hard—this issue we say goodbye to a true pillar of our church—Ben Mullen. This is a time when I wish cloning were legal. We could make several copies of Ben and his wife Jackye before they move off to Carrollton, Texas to take on a senior pastor position at First Baptist Church of Hebron (which is about a half hour away).

Many Hats

Ben has worn just about every hat possible in our church. He has been a mini-church leader, a deacon, our deacon-treasurer, an elder and for the last 5 years, our Youth Pastor. He served faithfully during our building renovation, contributing to our sweat equity in a sacrificial manner. He painted virtually every stick of trim and all the doors of our church with 3 coats of oil-based paint. The joyful spirit he displayed during that project was not due to inhaling oil-based fumes. He was always willing to do whatever it took to get any job done without complaint.

Behind Every Successful Man...

Marilyn Pearson once said, "Behind every successful man is a surprised woman". I don't know who Marilyn Pearson is, but in this case our surprised woman is Jackye Mullen. Jackye has served in helping with the Youth and with The Promised Land, our kid's Sunday school. Ben and Jackye have two wonderful kids—Melissa and David.

Our Loss—the Kingdom's Gain

The sweet part of this deal is that the Lord transfers two devoted laborers to a field that needed shepherds. Yet our loss is surely God's Kingdom's gain.

So let's remember to pray hard for the Mullen's as they tackle this new calling. It surely will be trying and stretching, but happily because of the closeness of his new church, we will be able to stay in close contact with them.

Also please come and say goodbye to Ben and Jackye at a reception in their honor on Sunday, November 6th at 6:30pm at our church. Please bring a dessert to share and if you have questions on the food aspects, call Terry Nihill at 214-327-8876. Ben's address is 11920 Sunland, Dallas, TX 75218.
